

Andy (Monty) Montoya

Andrew Montoya has been a resident of Douglas County, Colorado, since 1998, with his current home in Roxborough since 2018. A retired Army veteran, he served as a Psychological Operations Specialist in Afghanistan from 2007 to 2008 and was medically retired in 2019 due to injuries sustained during his service. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Management with a minor in Human Resources from Colorado Christian University, graduating in 2012 with a 3.76 GPA.

Andrew lives with his wife Kim, who is disabled from a stroke, and their two dogs, Yankee and Bella. Retirement has allowed him to care for his wife and actively engage in volunteer work. He is the president of the Roxborough Ridge HOA and organizes annual fundraising efforts for nonprofits, including "A Precious Child."

Andrew is committed to serving his community and is running for director of the Roxborough Village Metro District, leveraging his education, experience, and dedication to the people of Roxborough.
